Profile/Objective

A highly self-motivated deckhand, competed with both laser and optimist class over 10 years of regattas experience.

After taking a scientific-linguistic diploma , I graduated in Nautical Studies ,to follow my passion for the sea and to make sailing my career. Over the last ten years, I developed many valuable skills stemming from my racing training and mentorship from my sailing coach and two captains.

I bring with me the necessary skills to be a motivated deckhand in every situations. I have cruised in the most popular routes in the Mediterranean Sea , such as the West Coast of Italy and its Islands, Spain, Balearic Island, Cote d 'Azur, and Sardinia. My racing training on racing boats has prepared me well for problem solving. I seek new and exciting opportunities on motor or sailing yachts to continue evolving my experience and my career.

Experience

ISYL ; Superyacht Captains and Chiefs Officers Course (EQF eu. level 5)

22 dec 2015-22 dec 2017

I'm involved in a Superyacht Captain Course which takes place in Viareggio, ita. I'm teached in nautical subject by specialist, expert professors and Captains which actually work onboard. The course offers also a 170 hours with an English mothertongue to improve my language skills.

22 july 2015 - 22 august 2015

Deck Cadet officer "Quinta Santa Maria" ND 15 SV

Assisted the Captain during the sail and engine navigation, we alternated wacthkeeping for long travel. When the sail was hoisted, worked at the coffee grinder or at the wheel. During moorings was positionated on bow to work the winch ropes. When the anchor was raised or dropped, I was at the wheel even if the QS Maria has not a bow thruster. Also had a responsibility in the cleaning of the deck(iron, cockpit, teak) and to prepare it in general. I drove the tender and helped the guests to land and during the meal I looked after them as a host.

01 august 2014 – 31 august 2014

Relief Skipper

Departure from Yachting Club Livorno, we sailed through Isle d'Or, Balearic Islands, final arrival in northern Sardinia. En route back to the Starting Point we also Sailed to Corsica.

My duties included assisting the skipper in navigation at the helm, with the sails, during the mooring in the Port or in the Harbour. In addition, i was expected to be ready to face any possible navigational situations. As it was a cruiseship, I was also responsible for cabin and kitchen maintenance.

Summer season 2012

Sailing Instructor

Worked as Sailing Instructor for the "Casa di Vela Elba" School , which offers different courses for coastal and open sea boats. The Head Instructor was responsible for the open-sea beginners, whereas I was responsible for the coastal courses which included the logistics and in class teaching as well as the hands-on sailing lessons.

Other Experience

10 years of regattas on laser class and Optimist class (partecipation in 5 italian championship well positioned)
